Welcome to SeafoodFest

Celebrating 40 years, the Ballard SeafoodFest is officially a time-honored tradition in Ballard. What started in 1974 as a salmon BBQ to raise funds for the Ballard Chamber of Commerce has evolved into a 2-day community festival and celebration of all things Ballard.

The 2014 SeafoodFest promises to expand on what we began last year: an outstanding line-up of musical artists at the Ballard Avenue MainStage with the help from our friends at the Sunset Tavern and the Tractor Tavern, the 2nd Annual Ballard BeerFest that highlights some of the finest craft beers from Ballard and the greater Northwest region, a celebration of our Scandinavian heritage at the new SKOL Stage produced in conjunction with the Leif Erikson Lodge and the Nordic Heritage Museum and a tip of the cap to our youth with the addition of the Festi-Bowl Skate Event on Saturday at Ballard Commons Park.

And, of course, SeafoodFest wouldn't be complete without our traditional alder smoked salmon barbecue thanks to the generous support from Trident Seafoods and the crews at Ballard Oil, Camco Electric, Pacific Fisherman and the members of Occidental Lodge No. 72.

The decades have rolled by bringing constant change to Ballard, but the tradition of the Ballard SeafoodFest continues on as we celebrate all that's good in our Ballard community.

<sup>4</sup> Thank You

Volunteers

From setup to teardown it takes nearly 300 volunteers to make SeafoodFest happen. Volunteers mark streets in the middle of the night. They pull beer. They answer questions at the info booth. They grill salmon. They hang signs. They pick up garbage. They sell raffle tickets. They work with vendors. They make sure attendees are safe.

In addition, committee members work almost year round dreaming, planning and implementing.

Why? Because they care about this special community we call home. They love festivals. They are music fans and they want to support a festival that provides quality music for all and keeps it free.

To you, SeafoodFest is truly grateful. Thank you.

Salmon Barbecue

5

SeafoodFest started in 1974 with bountiful salmon, a delicious recipe and the generosity of an entire community to prepare and serve it.

Forty years later, festival-goers still line up down the street to have the only salmon dinner flown in from Alaska especially for this event.

And we are proud to serve the same recipe at the same location: 22nd Avenue NW and NW 56th Street.

Here's what's on the menu:

Alder-smoked Salmon

Garlic Bread

Cole Slaw

Choice of Water or Soft Drink

6 SkolStage & Scandinavian Gateway

The heart of Ballard will always remain with its Scandinavian heritage. A group of immigrants came to work in the maritime and logging industries, then created a micro-culture unique to this little NW corner of Seattle. They brought with them their food, their art, their music, their clothing. And we are the richer for it.

SeafoodFest is proud to present the Scandinavian Gateway, at 20th & Market, designed to welcome attendees and share some of that rich Scandinavian Heritage. The stage is filled with traditional music and well, some not so traditional--we simply can't resist the Abba option... A variety of Scandinavian folks will have exhibits and share everything from music and language to recipes and dance. And don't miss the Viking Raid!, a scavenger hunt all over Ballard. Stop by the booths adjacent to the Skol Stage, pick up your passport and find the loot!

Ballard BeerFest

Last year, we introduced a new SeafoodFest event, the Ballard BeerFest. The response was phenomenal. This year, we've planned an even larger celebration.

Rock and roll: We've expanded the BeerFest venue, and moved it closer to the Ballard MainStage.

More beer: Bring on the nano brews, micro brews, and all the best beer from your favorite Ballard and Northwest breweries.

What are you waiting for? There's a cold one waiting for you at the BeerFest.

Location: 22nd Avenue NW & Ballard Avenue

Hours: Saturday from 12:00pm - 10:00pm
Sunday from 12:00pm - 7:00pm

Cost: $5 for a 14 oz. beer • $7 for wine
There is NO FEE to enter the festival

Join the Conversation on Twitter: #BallardBeerFest

Sunset Satellite Beer Garden

Be sure to check out the other Beer Garden just up the road on Ballard Avenue. They'll be featuring DJs all day. They have some raucous after parties planned, too.
Here's the lineup:

Saturday, July 12 - Seafood Fest After-Party

9:30pm Dudley Man Love

Sunday July 13th - Seafood Fest Mop Up Party featuring the bands of Ballard Avenue Bartenders

5:30pm No Grave

14 Get Grillin'

If you've lived in Seattle for any length of time, you are well acquainted with the on-going love affair we have with Oncorhynchus, otherwise known as Pacific salmon. From the spectacle of the flying fish at Pike Place Market, to the red carpet arrival of the first Copper River salmon every spring, our adoration of all things salmon runs deep – like the salmon themselves.

Baked, smoked, grilled, or broiled, one of the most authentic tastes of summer is the melt-in-your-mouth goodness of freshly cooked salmon. It's no coincidence that SeafoodFest has included an alder-smoked salmon barbeque since 1974 – forty smokin' years, to be exact. So follow your nose to 5511 22nd Avenue, and don't miss one of SeafoodFest's most iconic and delicious events.

Pacific Rim Orange Salmon

You may not be able to replicate the Ballard SeafoodFest barbeque at home, but here's another way to prepare salmon that is quick, tasty, and almost as fun. Happy eating!

Ingredients

- 1 ½ pounds salmon filet
- 1 cup of butter
- 3 cloves of garlic, minced
- 4 teaspoons of soy sauce
- ¼ teaspoon powdered ginger
- 1 teaspoon of brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons of Dijon mustard
- 2 teaspoons of freshly grated orange rind
- ½ cup of freshly squeezed orange juice
- A dash of Worcestershire sauce

1. Rinse salmon filet under cold water and pat dry with paper towels.
2. Brush the skin with oil.
3. Place skin side down on a piece of foil. If broiling, place foil on baking sheet.
4. Preheat broiler or grill.
5. Prepare ingredients above, and mix together in small bowl.
6. Pour marinade into a saucepan.
7. Simmer marinade on low heat, stirring frequently.
8. Brush filet with marinade.
9. Place salmon filet under broiler or on grill.
10. Periodically brush marinade on filet.
11. Cook 1-inch-thick filets for 10 to 15 minutes. Allow another 10 minutes for each extra inch of thickness.
12. Check fish with a fork. If salmon flakes easily, it is ready to eat.
13. Remove the fish from foil with a spatula and serve immediately.

There's a rich variety of artisans at SeafoodFest featuring everything from jewelry to Henna tattoos, caricatures to spiced nuts. Various non profits join the fun, too. Some provide event activities: Amazing Grace Spiritual Center creates prayer flags with kids, Ballard Baptist has a fish pond and Community Cat Coalition brings cats for adoption. Finally, several of our sponsors have booth space. They too, bring activities. Some offer massage. Some, such as Bath Fitter, Sylvan and Z-Ultimate feature fun for kids. AMLI, located on Ballard Avenue, between the beer gardens, has a photo booth; and finally, if you see a gecko wandering around, you'll know GEICO is "in the house". Thanks to all for such vibrant displays and activity!
